AMERICAN HOME INSPECTORS TRAINING

Since 1993, American Home Inspectors Training, the largest home inspection training company in North America, has provided industry-leading live classroom and online home inspection training, certifications, continuing education, and professional development courses. Our live classroom training includes valuable hands-on field training and our online course options offer flexibility for your schedule. We are committed to providing you the most effective way to achieve success in the home inspection industry.

MISSION

Our mission is to train and provide ongoing support to individuals interested in starting their own successful home inspection business or becoming a significant contributor in an established home inspection company.

Our best-in-class, comprehensive home inspection training, coupled with our marketing and technical support services, will set you up for success in your new home inspection career.

WHAT A HOME INSPECTOR DOES

The job of a home inspector is to inspect buildings by walking through each area, sometimes crawling into small spaces such as attics, checking rooftops, and cellars, plumbing, electricity and appliances. Then they write a detailed report outlining the condition of the property, areas where repair or replacement may be needed, and specify any potential safety concerns.

Anyone can train to become a home inspector although typically prospective students are already involved in the real estate or construction fields. The physical ability to navigate through a building is required. In general this means that the prospective student should have the physical abilities to do so.

ADMISSION REQUIREMENTS

Admission is open any person meeting the below qualifications. No qualified person may be excluded from enrollment on the basis of race, color, religion, gender, gender identity and/or expression, national origin, disability, marital status, sexual orientation, or military status.

Applicants must meet the following requirements:

1. Be at least 18 years of age.
2. The submission of any required forms (Enrollment Agreements, etc.) as required by state postsecondary regulations.
3. Pay appropriate fees. See REGISTRATION AND TUITION.

Special Accommodations

Students should contact their admission counselor for assistance with requests. People who work as a home inspector must have certain physical abilities to visually inspect buildings and structures, navigate throughout the building including on the roof, the ability to write inspection reports, and communicate with clients.

Language of Training

All Courses are offered only in English. American Home Inspectors Training does not offer English as a Second Language instruction.

Transfer or Granting of Credit

No life experience, credit through challenge exams, or previous training may be applied to any Course.

There is no guarantee that home inspection courses can be transferred to other schools. It is the student's responsibility to confirm whether credits will be accepted by another institution of the student's choice.

Late Enrollment

There are no provisions for late enrollment.

AMERICAN HOME INSPECTORS TRAINING FACILITIES

American Home Inspectors Training holds training courses at Associated Builders and Contractors, Inc. (ABC) Western Pennsylvania Chapter. The facilities include a training room, lab area, lounge, and restrooms. All Courses are held in designated training areas on pre-scheduled dates.

PENNSYLVANIA REQUIREMENTS FOR HOME INSPECTORS

In some states licensing is required to inspect work as a home inspector. States are increasingly introducing legislation regarding the home inspection industry. Prospective home inspectors therefore need to contact the proper state agencies regarding requirements in their states.

Home inspectors in Pennsylvania do not need to be licensed, but they are governed by statute. Home inspectors are required to be full members in good standing of a national, non-profit home inspection association. According to 68 Pa.C.S. §7502(a)(3), a full member of a national home inspection association “has performed or participated in more than 100 home inspections and has passed a recognized or accredited examination testing knowledge of the proper procedures for conducting a home inspection.” Those who wish to practice in the city of Philadelphia, must submit an application. Information can be found here: <https://business.phila.gov/home-inspector-license/>.

MEMBERSHIPS & AFFILIATIONS

Professionalism is important and membership in related organizations is encouraged. These organizations have their own requirements. Some administer exams; others require a certain amount of experience.

Membership is voluntary in any professional organization and does not mean state certification or licensure nor does it guarantee employment.

American Home Inspectors Training is affiliated with ASHI®, CREIA, FABI, and InterNACHI® and offers approved pre and continuing education courses.
